20	The parties to this case hereby agree and stipulate as follows:
21	WHEREAS,
22	1. The parties are scheduled for their first appearance before the district court at the
23	above date and time, and are still in the process of exchanging and reviewing discovery, as well
24	as discussing whether it might be possible to reach an early resolution of the case;
25	2. Both the defendant and her counsel live in New York, and it is therefore
26	inconvenient to them to travel to California for a status hearing at which the parties would simply
27	be requesting a continuance for further status;
28	3. Defense counsel has requested that the matter be put over to February 1, 2010, in order to accommodate both his schedule and the need for effective defense preparation; and

4. The parties therefore agree that the time occasioned by this continuance is excludible pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(A) and (B)(i) and (iv).

IT IS THEREFORE STIPULATED AS FOLLOWS:

The case should be continued for a further status and setting conference, or disposition, to occur on Monday, February 1, 2010, at 1:30 p.m., before The Honorable James Ware, United States District Judge. The time between December 14, 2009 and the above date should be excluded from the Speedy Trial clock for the reasons set forth above.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing Stipulation and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this matter is continued for further status and setting conference, or for disposition, to occur on Monday, February 1, 2010, at 1:30 p.m.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the time between December 14, 2009, and February 1, 2010, shall be excluded from the computation the period within which the trial must commence, for the reasons and based upon the statutory provisions set forth by the parties in the Stipulation. The Court finds that the ends of justice outweigh the interests of the public and the parties in a speedier trial based upon the grounds set forth above.
